

Global '95 ISDN GUIDE.

IGICOM, Boston 1995

The place: "Global '95 is a three day event enthusiastically supported by telecommunications providers and manufactures from over 45 countries around the globe and has been designed to celebrete international connectivity for ISDN-based applications. Demonstration centers around the world will be open the public during this time to showcase the use of the technology."